Gookonaanig Endaawaad (Grandmas' House) is a language nest for babies 0 to 3 years old. We are housed on the homelands of The Fond Du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa, in north-eastern Minnesota. Gookonaanig Endaawaad brings together families of language learners, elders, and staff to raise first language speakers and revitalize Ojibwe language through a community and family centered approach.

Currently, programming runs Tuesday through Thursday from 9:00am to 2:30pm with Friday fieldtrips from 10am to 1pm.

Aaniin keyaa ezhi-gikinoo'amaagooyan Ojibwemowin?
In what ways have you learned Ojibwe?

Daga nakwetan onowe gagwedwewinan. Mii go izhi-zhaaganaashiiwibii'an.
Please answer the following question. Feel free to write in English.

1. How long have you been learning Ojibwe? Describe the different contexts in which you have learned the language.

2. How well would you estimate that you can speak Ojibwe?

- Fluently
- Somewhat well: can make myself understood but have some problems with it
- Not very well: know a lot of words and phrases, but struggle in certain areas
- Know some vocabulary, but can't speak in sentences or complete thoughts
- Not at all

3. What are your language goals? What are your hopes in regards to your family's language development?

4. Will you be able to commit to attending our program with your child each week? Our current schedule is Tuesday through Thursday 9:00am – 2:30pm with Friday fieldtrips from 10am-1pm. Do you have any scheduling concerns?

5. What is your comfort level with being in an immersion environment? Only Ojibwe is spoken during programming at Gookonaanig Endaawaad.

6. Is there anything else you would like to share about yourself or your family?
